INTRODUCTION

LET'S BE REAL, 2025 HASN'T BROUGHT ANY MAJOR BUDGET SURPRISES AS:

- Marketing spend is holding steady at 7.7% of total company revenue, the same as last year. Budgets aren't growing, but they're not shrinking either which is a clear sign that marketers are balancing cost pressures with steady investment.
- Still, 59% of CMOs say they don't have enough funding to fully execute their plans. The fix? Squeezing more out of every dollar through Al and data-driven efficiency.
- And it's working. Generative AI is proving its worth as 49% of CMOs are seeing faster turnaround times, 40% report cost savings, and 27% are producing more content without extra resources.
- Al's impact doesn't stop there. 39% of CMOs plan to trim agency and labor costs, simplifying roles and redirecting budgets toward Al-led capabilities.
- Across North America and Europe, 41% of CMOs now rely on AI and analytics to optimize performance and boost productivity proving that in 2025, smarter really does mean leaner.

INDUSTRY LANDSCAPE TODAY

- Over half of marketers (56%) are already using AI, and another 43% are testing it so by 2025, almost every CMO has AI in the mix.
- Across organizations, 88% have adopted AI in at least one function with sales + marketing leading the charge.
- Search is shifting too: 47% of SERPs now show AI Overviews.
- And the investment is only growing as AI marketing spend is set to jump from $47B in 2025 to $107B+ by 2028.

THE AI ERA ISN'T COMING. IT'S ALREADY HERE.

FORECASTED TRENDS (2026+)

If Al is rewriting the rules of advertising, it's also redefining every pillar of modern marketing. Here's how the journey unfolds, from where we started, to where we stand today, and where we're headed next.

TREND	WHAT THE NUMBERS SAY
Al-Driven Personalization	With 71% of consumers expecting personalized content and 67% feeling annoyed when it's not, it's clear why leaders are generating 40% more revenue through better personalization.
Neuromarketing +AI	With the market at $1.45B in 2024 and heading to $1.58B in 2025, neuromarketing is accelerating fast and is expected to touch $3.02B by 2032 at a 9.57% CAGR.
Voice and Visual Search	Voice assistants have officially taken over, 8.4B of them worldwide and with 75% of homes now owning smart speakers, voice search is becoming everyone's go-to.
Predictive Analytics	Al-driven analytics is helping companies make decisions 78% faster and forecast with 50% better accuracy.
Hyper- Personalized Journeys	With 75% of B2B buyers expecting personalization by 2026 and conversion rates rising by up to 35% because of it, Al-driven journey orchestration is becoming standard.
Ethical Al	The Al ethics market is set to grow by $1.6 billion from 2025 to 2029 at a 29.5% CAGR with North America leading the charge thanks to its strong private-sector involvement and solid regulations
Wildcard: Search Without Search	Gartner says Al assistants and LLMs will take over roughly 25% of global search queries by 2026, replacing many traditional search habits.

EXPERT VOICES

- The Data Right- "Al should not be a Big Bang, it should be a series of little projects that show value every step of the way. Don't start with flashy demos or massive model investments. Start with data. Start small. Prove value. Then build".
- Google's CEO, Sundar Pichai, said Artificial Intelligence will save us not destroy us- "Al is probably the most important thing humanity has ever worked on. I think of it as something more profound than electricity or fire. Any time you work with technology, you need to learn to harness the benefits while minimising the downsides."
